HE IS WILLING TO BE THE POPULIST CAN-DIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE GIVEN OUT AT ST. LOUIS-HE THINKS THE FREE-SILVER VOTE MAY BE UNITED FOR ONE TICKET ON

"EQUITABLE TERMS." St. Louis, Oct. 3.-William J. Eryan to-day gave out his letter accepting the Populist nomination. It reads as follows: The Hon. William V. Allen, chairman, and others, nbers of the Notification Committee of the pentlemen: The nomination of the People's Party r the Presidency of the United States has been idered me in such a generous spirit and upon such conorable terms that I am able to accept the same out departing from the platform adopted by the National Convention at Chicago.

I fully appreciate the breadth of the patriotism which has actuated the members of the People's Party, who, in order to consolidate the sentiment in favor of simetallism, have been willing to go outside of party lines and support as their candidate one already inated by the Democratic party and also by the I also appreciate the fact that while during all the years since 1873, a large majority of the poeratic party and a considerable minority of the Republican party have been consistent advocates of the free coinage of silver at the present ratio, yet ever since the organization of the People's Party its members have unanimously supported such coinage as the only means of restoring bimetallism. By pergold standard and protesting against each successive step toward financial bondage, the Populists have exerted an important influence in awakening the publie to a realization of the Nation's present peril.

In a time like this, when a great political party is attempting to surrender the right to legislate for urselves upon the financial question, and is seeking to bind the American people to a foreign mone-tary system. It behooves us, as lovers of our counand friends of American institutions, to aside for the present such differences as may exist among us on minor questions in order that our strength may be united in a supreme effort to wrest the Government from the hands of those who imagine that the Nation's finances are only secured controlled by a few financiers, and that National honor can only be maintained by servile acquiescence in any policy, however destructive to the interests of the people of the United States, which foreign creditors, present or prospective, may desire to force upon us.

It is a cause of congratulation that we have in this campaign not only the support of Democrats. Populists and Republicans who have all along believed in independent bimetallism, but also the active co-operation of those Democrats and Republicans who have heretofore waited for international bimetallism, and who now join with us rather than trust the destinies of the Nation, in the hands of those who are holding out the delusive hope of foreign aid while they labor secretly for the permaent ertablishment of the single gold standard.

While difficulties have always arisen in the settlement of details of any plan of co-operation between distinct political organizations, I am sure that the advocates of himetallism are so intensely in earnest that they will be able to devise some means by which the free-sliver vote may be concentrated upon one electoral ticket in each State. To secure this result, electoral ticket an each State. To secure this results toward the opinions of others and liberality on the part of an is necessary, but honest and sincere friends who are working toward a common result always flud it possible to agree upon just and equitable terms. The American people have proven equal to every emergency which has arisen in the past, and I am confident that in the present emergency there will be no antagonism between the various regiments of the one great army which is marching to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to repel an invasion more dangerous to our welling to the contraction of fare than an army with banners.

GORMAN ENCROACHES ON HILL.

NEW ELEMENTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC MUDDLE IN THIS STATE

Oct. 3 (Special).-Senator Gorman Maryland, it was reported here this evening, is at-tempting to take an active part in the Bryan and Sewall campaign in this State. He has held conit is said, with many Democratic politicians from the interior of the State and with Hugh McLaughlin, of Brooklyn, and John C. Sheehan concerning the means that should be adopted to get out a large vote for Bryan. Senator Hill, in the opinion of his friends here, regards Senator Gorman's action in coming into this State as a piece of decided impertinence. Senator Gor-man himself is reported to have humorously expressed his regret at violating the rules of "Senatorial courtesy." Some time ago, when it was reported that Gorman and Hill were to hold a conference, the latter said: "No, there is no engage-Maryland such a difficult one that he probably will not have time to do any work in any other State."

Democratic politicians attribute to Gorman the action of Ellior Danforth, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, in filing with Secretary of State Palmer to-day a protest against the use of the name "National Democratic Party" by the Sound Money Democrats, Secretary of State Tuesday. In either case the Sound Money Demoticket and the Griffin State ticket on the official ballot, as they have an undisputed legal right to use the title of "Democratic Party Reform Organi-ration." crats will get the Palmer and Buckner electoral IGNORANCE PROFESSED AT POPOCRATIC HEAD-OUARTERS ABOUT A CHECK FOR $20,000.

Reports of large contributions to the Bryan camheadquarters in the Bartholil Hotel. In fact, they have been stamped "Nit" by the officials who ought to know, and the little Popourats who flutter about the headquarters, like moths about an electric light, eager to do some real campaigning if they can get pay for it, have become weary with long waiting. The latest report was that Arthur Sewall, the Popacratic candidate for Vice-President, had tapped his barrel of gold to aid the cause of free silver and had handed over a check for $29,000 to William P

There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note, when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co only, and sold by all reputable

St. John, the treasurer of the National Committee. When this report was published yesterday it caused much excitement around the headquarters

Several Democratic politicians, who think they have the gift of oratory, went to Mr. St. John's office to make inquiries about possible engagements to take the stump for Mr. Bryan. Mr. St. John had not been at his office since early on Friday, and it was said that he was ill at his home, at No. 121 East Thirty-fourth-st. His illness began, it was said. about the time he was reported to have received the check for $20,000 from Mr. Sewall. Other officials at the headquarters said they knew nothing about the check, and Mr. Sewall had started for his home in Maine on Friday. One pompous Democrat who was at the headquarters making inquiries declared that would waste no more time in trying to find out if ey could make his services in the campaign profit-

"Before I decide to sever myself from my former associates and enter into active work in Mr. Bryan's interests I want to know what I am to get, and I don't intend to waste much more time in trying to find out." he said.

Mr. Danforth, the chairman of the Democratic State Committee, said he did not know if Mr. Sewall had given a check to Mr. St. John. He did not know, either, if Mr. St. John had received any contribution from the committee of silver-mine owners in I'tah, who were reported to have prepared to answer the appeal of Thomas S. Merrill, the secretary of the Bimetallie League of the Silver States. Mr. Danforth would not talk about the letter of Mr. Merrill, demanding from the mine-towners 64 cents for each ounce of silver mined in a month, "all of which will be profit" if Mr. Bryan was elected.

A Tribune reporter found Mr. St. John in his home, in East Thirty-fourth-st., slightly indisposed, and Mr. St. John flatly contradicted the report about the $20,000 check from Mr. Sewall, He said he had received no such check from Mr. Sewall, and did not know that Mr. Sewall had made such a contribution to the campaign fund. Mr. St. John also said that he had received nothing from the silver-mine owners in Utah. He had nothing to say about Mr. Merrill's appeal.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS AT ST. LOUIS.

VICE-PRESIDENT STEVENSON SPEAKS, BUT THE ENTHUSIASM IS SLIGHT-MR: BRYAN PRESENT IN THE EVENING.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.-The second quadrennial convention of the National Association of Democratic Clubs assembled in the Auditorium Building here this morning. The hall was profusely decorated but the gallery of portraits was notable by the absence of President Cleveland's likeness. The delegates were slow in assembling. The galleries, which have a seating capacity of 5,000, had but a bare fringe of spectators in the lower tier of seats. At 11:15 not more than 1,000 people were inside the building, and the orders were given to throw open the galleries to any who desired admission

At 11:45 o'clock the convention was called to order, and President Black made his address. He was followed by Vice-President Stevenson, who

speke in part as follows:

We are told that the real issue—that upon which this election is to turn—is not the monetary but the tariff question. Our opponents place this in the very forefront of the struggle. The nomination at St. Louis of the distinguished author of the last Republican tariff law emphasizes the determination of our opponents when in the full tide of power to re-enact the McKinley law. The financial question, however, overshadows all others in the present contest. Believing, as I do, that gold and silver find coual recognition in the Constitution of the United States; that by their joint use in effecting exchanges and performing the other functions of money we have prospered in the past; and believing that the evil days now befallen us are in ne small measure the result of the demonstization of silver I have no hesitation in maintaining my party allegiance and casting my vote for Bryan and Sewall, the nominees of the Democratic Convention.

At the afternoon session the permanent officers convention were selected as follows: Chairman II D Money, of Mississippi, secretary, John White, of West Virginia; assistant secretary, J M. Kane, of Indiana.

Mrs. Worth, president of the Woman's National League of Bryan and Sewall Clubs, made an address in behalf of her sex. J. M. Kelley, president of the Association of College Clubs, also spoke briefly. The Committee on Resolutions then reported resolutions unholding the Chicago platform. Mr Bryan arrived in the evening and made a speech. The hall was crowded.

MR BRYAN'S JOURNEY FROM CINCINNATI

St. Louis, Oct. 2.-William J. Bryan spent the night as the guest of Judge James P. Tarvin, in Covingion, Ky. At the Grand Central Station in Cincinnati he was joined by Congressman Benton McMillin, of Tennessee; Ben C. Davis, his private secretary, and Allen W. Clark, chalrman of the Indiana Silver League, Their train for St. Louis started at 7 o'clock. Mr. Bryan spoke at many places on the way. At North Vernon, Ind., he said in part:

When I lived in Illinois, I remember that we had anelection and the question submitted was whether cows should run at large, (Laughter.) We had great discussions over it. When they came to vote the man's vote was largely determined by whether he had cows to run at large or not. (Cheering and applause.) The reason why a great many men are in favor of a gold standard is because they have cows running at large and they want to pasture those cows either on the public highway or else they want to pasture them on somebody else's pasture.

When the special train in which Mr. Bryan was

spoke in part as follows:

They tell you that the interest of one man is the interest of all. I tell you that there are question; that arise where men's interests differ. I might point you to one. I remember that in the House of Representatives a bill was presented to compel the trains engaged in interstate commerce to put such couplers on their cars as would protect the lives and limbs of their employes. I remember that for one whole night we stayed in session trying to get that bill before the House. (Theren.)

We found arrayed against us the railroad attorney, who said that it would cost too much. (Applause and cheers.) I know that they measured the cent of putting a coupler on a car against human life. (Great appause.) If the railroad president and the railroad manager can compel his employes to yote for some railroad man to help the railroad; whenever a question comes up between the employer and the employes, that man for whom the employer and the employes, that man for whom the interests of the employer, not of the employe.

The Harlem Republican Club held a mass-meeting last night in front of its clubhouse, in West One hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. near Seventh-ave. Before the meeting opened, Dunham's band rendered popular airs from the balcony in front of the clubhouse. Henry C. CHEERING REPORTS AT HEADQUARTERS

NEWS OF HIS STATE THE ASSIGN The week at the Republican National Headquarters has been a busy one and a satisfactory

one. Each day the prospect grows brighter and the wane of the silver sentiment is manifested more and more. The National Committee now has a complete and harmonious organization all over the country, and the most cheering reports are received. The Delaware case, which has been hanging fire for some time, is now closed up, and an aggressive and harmonious campaign will be made in that State. The Addicks and Higgins factions will both work for the success of the ticket. The electors represent a compromise, and everyboasts about free-silver Congressmen do not scare the Republican Committee at all, but there is no let up in the vigorous fight in Congress districts. Mr. Hanna remained at Republican headquarters until late yesterday in consultation with Mr. Manley, Mr. Bliss and Mr. Scott. He is winding up business in the East preparatory to starting for Chleago. He expects to leave the city next Tuesday and stop at Cleveland on his way to The hardest part of the fight, Mr. Hanna says, is to be fought in the Middle Western States, and he intends to be where the battle is noticat. He will remain in the West until after election Senator Quay, it was said at headquarters yesterday, would be at his desk to-morrow been at his home in Beaver, Penn, celebrating his sixty-third birthday. When Senator Quay returns he will take up the thread of business where Mr. Hanna drops it on going West.

One of the callers upon Mr. Hanna yesterday was Sigismund Rothschild, a prominent business man of Detroit, who said in reference to the fight n his State:
"Sixty or ninety days ago I could not have in his State:

brought so hopeful a face with me as I do now to Michigan Northern Michigan State thoroughly, and it is a fact that the same men who two months ago loudly championed silver now actually confers that they are ashamed of their temporary weakness. The mining region of the State affords especially an example of the change. Take our largest city betroit, where we are doing entiuslastle work, and look at the situation there. We have 49,000 German citizens who are instinctively conservative and cautious, and they are solid for McKinley. Thirty miles from the city there is a settlement of some 19,000 Hollanders solid for McKinley. The Scandinavians of the Northern section are solid for McKinley. I have been trying in vain to find some one to bet against me on 50,000 majority in the State. It will really be near 50,000.

"I voted for Cleveland four years ago, and would naturally vote for Palmer this fail if I did not realize how necessar; it is to make McKinley's majority so great as to convince the business centres of the world that this crank movement was effectually and permanently done with. If the question is permitted to come up every four years great injury will be wrought and distrust will not be put down."

It was Members' Day at the headquarters of the Wholesale Drygoods Republican Club yesterday, and a larger number than usual of drygoods men gath-èred at the club's big assembly room at No. 350 Broadway to hear addresses delivered by their fellows in the trade. Every class was represented in order that Mr. Bryan's class against mass arguments might be the more successfully combated. Meyer Jonasson, the well-known merchant of No. 368 Broadway, was introduced by Chairman W. B. Fuller, the vice-president of the club. Mr. Jonasson

Fuller, the vice-president of the club. Mr. Jonasson said in part:

Bryan says we are built differently from other nations; that we can do what we like; that we are leading. I have all due respect for Mr. Bryan He is an able, ambilious man, and means well; but I think, before enterling into this campaign, Mr. Bryan would have done well to have given the study of National history a little more attention.

The mischief done by had medicines is scarcely iess than that caused by discuse. If they who are weak billous, dyspeptic, constituted or rheumatic, would often billous, dyspeptic, constricted or rheumatic, would oftener be guided by the experience of invalids who have thor-oughly tested Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they would in every instance obtain the speedlest aid derivable from ra-tional medication. This medicine is a searching and at the same time a thoroughly safe remedy, derived from vegetable sources, and possessing, in consequence of its basis of pure spirits, properties as a medicinal stimulant not to be found in the fiery local bitters and stimulants often resorted to by the debilitated, dyspeptic and languid. NO BRYANISM FOR GILROY.

THE EX-MAYOR BACK FROM EUROPE-WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT J. C. SHEEHAN'S THREATS. Ex-Mayor Thomas F. Gilroy, looking ruddy and

cobust, with the bronze of an ocean voyage and a two-months' tour of Europe on his face, was a passenger on the American Liner Paris, which arrived yesterday. Mrs. Gilroy and three of their younger children accompanied the ex-Mayor. Mrs. Gilroy, who had been for a time in impaired health, was greatly benefited by the trip.

Mr. Gilroy was a delegate to the Chicago Convention. He and ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant were among the most outspoken in the New-York delegation in denouncing the Chicago platform and in repudia on the Chicago infamy were unchanged.

I am back home again rather earlier than I should otherwise have come," Mr. Gilroy said, "because I want to give whatever aid I can to avert what in my judgment would prove a National ca-lamity—the success of Bryan. I am as firmly convinced as when I went away some weeks ago that the cause of sound money and National honor is the cause of patriotism and true Democracy. I shall do all m my power toward the defeat of Bryan.

I am as good a Democrat as I ever was in my William E. Uptegrove & Brother, dealers in stand for right and justice without endangering his political future."

While abroad, Mr. Gilroy said, he had heard lit-tle about the conduct of the campaign. The news-papers on the other side printed little bearing upon the political situation in the United States. He had heard, however, that Tammany had declared for Bryan and free silver. "I have heard, too," he said significantly, "that there are members who have taken no steps to there are intention of falling in and supporting the

there are members who have casanization, but have no intention of falling in and supporting the silver ficket."

Mr. Gilroy said he adhered to the principles declared by the Saratoga Convention in Jurie. "I am not opposed to Bryanism solely on account of the silver issue. There are many other things in the Chicago platform which I cannot approve. One is the attack upon the integrity of the Suppreme Court of the United States. The tendency of the platform is revolutionary and dangerous; it is Socialistic and Anarchistic." "What is your position in the State campaign? Will you support Porter and Schraub?" "I certainly shail not," was the reply. "I shall not yote for any free-silver man." "Even on the local ticket?"

Mr. Gilroy was slightly disconcerted by the question. But he ralled promptly. "I do not wish to confound local with State and National issues," he said. "I shall vote neither for Bryan nor for the State ticket of the Popograts. But I must find out more about the local conditions before saying anything about them."

"Will you make any speeches in the campaign." "I think not." Mr. Gilroy said. "It is not my purpose to become in any way prominent this fall or make any speeches. I shall, however, do all in my power to help defeat Bryan, and I not only hope, but believe, that he will be defeated."

Mr. Gilroy laughed good-naturedly, "I do not care to tell how I shall yote," he said, after a nause. "The nyou have made up your mind to vote directly for McKinley."

Mr. Gilroy laughed good-naturedly, "I do not care to tell how I shall yote," he said, after a nause. "The great thing is to defeat Bryan and hury the Chicago platform."

Every living ex-Mayor of New-York, with a solitary exception, is against Bryan and repudiation. The roll of honor includes Danlel F. Temann, Smith Elv. Edward Cooper. William R. Grace. SENATOR PALMER ON THE OUTLOOK.

HE PREDICTS THE SUCCESS OF MIKINLEY AND THE DEFEAT OF ALTGELD IN ILLINOIS. St. Louis, Oct 3 .- Senator John M. Palmer, National Democratic candidate for President, was at East St.

Louis yesterday. Asked about the outlook in Illinois, he said: "The State will declare for sound money and for law and order by a good majority." "Do you expect that the National Democratic ticke will carry Illinois?" "No; McKinley will carry Illinois, and the true Democracy will be in the saddle in 1960."
"How about Cook County? Both McKinley and Bryan managers claim a plurality of 50,000 there." "I think the flaures too high. An estimate of about 30,000 for McKinley in Cook County would be about right."

"How about Altgeld?"
"Forman is making a vigorous fight for Governor, and his work is teling. I expect that Forman and the Sound Money Democratic State ticket will poll more votes in Illinois than I will. I predict the defeat of Altgeld and the entire silver ticket."
